Rating

Return

Diamonds are gaining in importance as a safe investment in times of crisis and have long since established themselves as a means of asset protection and diversification in the portfolio.

Brilliants weighing 1 to 2 carats have achieved an average annual appreciation of 10.1% over the last five years and over 27% over the last two years.

Stability

Compared to other asset classes, diamonds have only a low correlation and are independent of developments in stock markets, banks, and in government budgets. The stability of prices is guaranteed by the oligopoly of the mining companies.

Brilliants with a weight of 1 to 2 carats show an annual volatility of less than 2% over the last 5 years.

Track Record

People have been investing in diamonds for many centuries. Historically, diamonds have been used as currency and a medium of exchange, particularly in India where diamonds have been mined since the 4th century B.C.

In recent decades, interest in diamonds as investment vehicles has increased, particularly as a means of wealth preservation and diversification in investment portfolios.

Investment Horizon of 5 to 7 years

Forecast per Splint in €	5 years	6 years	7 years
Ambitious	107	127	151
Balanced	62	66	70
Defensiv	55	56	57

- Investment horizon has been set to 5 to 7 years.
- Due to the current economic situation, we expect diamond prices to continue to rise in the coming years. According to the assessment, the demand for diamonds will continue to increase, as investors increasingly add precious stones to their portfolios. This makes this diamond a perfect medium to long-term investment.
- If one of the following two conditions is met, the sale of the asset is considered:
 - End of the defined investment horizon has been reached.
 - Ambitious case already occurs before the end investment horizon.
