Rating

9/10

Return

The Global Art Market & COVID-19 Report by Citi Private Bank, 2021, "contemporary art demonstrated a gain of 6.7%, surpassing the 5.5% return observed across other segments of the art market. The artworks of Babbar consistently outperform their estimated values, often exceeding them by a factor of ten or more.

7/10

Stability

Art has consistently shown better performance as an investment compared to other types of assets, including the S&P 500 and FTSE 100, throughout the last two decades. The limited liquidity of art proves advantageous for assets that prioritize stability in value and exhibit a low correlation with the fluctuations of the stock market.

7/10

Track Record

As a young artist, Raghav's artistic approach is consistently changing. He diligently applies layers of oil paint, dedicating up to 15 days before adding the next layer. The initial artworks have already been sold at auction by Sotheby's, and due to high demand, the proceeds surpassed the estimated value by a factor of 10.
