Rating

9/10

Return

According to "The Global Art Market & COVID-19 Report by Citi Private Bank, 2021", contemporary art turned a profit of 6,7 %, compared to the 5,5 % return of all the other art sectors. Babbar's works consistently exceed their estimates by a factor of ten or more.

7/10

Stability

As an investment opportunity, art has consistently outperformed other asset classes, such as the S&P 500 and FTSE 100, over the past 20 years. The illiquidity of art works favorably for assets with value stability and low correlation with the stock market. According to the Artprice100 index, art posted an average 4.2% increase in returns in 2023.

7/10

Track Record

As a young artist, Raghav's style is constantly evolving. He continues to patiently apply layers of oil paint, a process that can take up to 15 days before the next layer is applied. On average, his artwork commands prices that are 15 times higher than the estimated values, making his pieces a potentially lucrative investment opportunity.

Ambitious	95	135	192
Balanced	71	87	107
Defensive	52	53	54

The investment horizon has been set to 2 to 4 years.

- Raghav Babbar is an emerging artist and is already achieving excellent auction results, which significantly exceed the purchase price. Therefore, our painting is perfectly suited as a short- to medium-term investment opportunity.
- If one of the following two conditions is met, the sale of the asset is considered:
 - End of the defined investment horizon has been reached.
 - Ambitious case already occurs before the end investment horizon.
