Collaboration

The iconic collaboration between KAWS and Dior in 2019 caused a stir worldwide and blurred the line between street art and high fashion. The luxurious figures combine KAWS' distinctive style with the elegance and craftsmanship of Dior. Their limited availability of only 500 pieces per figure makes them coveted collectibles that impress not only for their aesthetic appeal but also for their potential increase in value.

Fun facts:

These figures are more than just toys: they are expressions of contemporary culture and symbols of exclusive art representing a valuable investment.

Rating

Return

The annual performance of the item for the last 2 years is +25.0%.

The Art Market report, published by Art Basel & UBS, indicates that the global art market has seen steady expansion in recent years. By 2022, total sales reached USD67.8 billion, showing a 3% annual increase, with an average profit margin of 7.6%.

Stability

Over the past two decades, art has shown more profitable returns compared to other investment avenues such as the S&P 500 and FTSE 100.

The restricted liquidity associated with art presents a beneficial aspect for investors seeking to introduce greater stability into their investment portfolios.

Track Record

The dynamic and ever-evolving world of contemporary art and fashion gave birth in 2019 to a collaboration that has excited enthusiasts worldwide: the KAWS x Dior BFF figures. On offer are two KAWS BFF plush toys, standing at 55 cm tall each, dressed in bespoke clothing from Dior's atelier. Limited to just 500 pieces each
