Why Invest in the Art Category?

Art, particularly contemporary art, has historically proven to be a resilient and lucrative investment category. It provides diversification for portfolios and often appreciates in value, especially works by renowned artists like Damien Hirst, whose pieces are frequently sought after by high-net-worth individuals and institutions.

Why Invest in "The Secrets (H-14)"?

This particular artwork is a limited edition from Hirst's recent series, "The Secrets," which has gained significant attention in the art world. Damien Hirst's reputation as a leading figure in contemporary art, coupled with the artwork's debut at prestigious events like Frieze London, underscores its potential for high returns. The piece is signed and numbered by the artist, further enhancing its value and collectibility.

History of the Asset

"The Secrets (H-14)" is part of a series of 8 works, each measuring 120 x 93 cm, created by Damien Hirst in 2024. Known for pushing boundaries and exploring themes of life and death, Hirst's work has consistently performed well at auction. The Secrets series follows the success of Hirst's previous Virtues series, which saw record auction prices, confirming the continued demand and appreciation for his works. The Secrets series debuted at Frieze London in 2023 and will be featured in an upcoming exhibition at Château La Coste, further increasing its visibility and desirability in the art market.

Projection

With a projected annual growth of up to 30%, "The Secrets (H-14)" offers attractive potential for high returns, supported by comparable sales of earlier series.
