Investment Case

Valuation Summary 📝 To ensure the competitiveness of the investment, we conducted a thorough verification of the purchase price by analyzing recent transactions and market values of comparable Prizm 1/1 sports cards, considering rarity, grading, and player status. Our analysis confirmed that the price offered, inclusive of all associated fees, is highly competitive. To estimate the potential ROI, we used the historical performance of high-end Prizm 1/1 sales. For the conservative scenario, we assumed the value of the card would grow at the rate of Swiss inflation. In the balanced scenario, we applied 80% of the average annual growth rate of the CardLadder Shohei Ohtani index over the past 7 years. Finally, in the ambitious scenario, we applied 100% of the average annual growth rate of the CardLadder Shohei Ohtani index over the past 7 years.

Exit Options at Maturity 🚪 We will manage the exit strategy on behalf of our investors, ensuring the best possible outcome based on market conditions at the time. Depending on the value of the card and the prevailing market situation, we can either sell the card privately to a collector or take it to auction. Both options are carefully considered, and we will choose the one that maximizes the return for our investors.

Why Invest in This Category? 👟 Sports cards are an asset class that has enjoyed one of highest multipliers in growth over last 5 to15 year span among alternative investment vehicles. Sports cards have strong fundamentals in bringing high valued licenses, age-tested brands, universal passion of sports, and transcendent talents together in innovative concepts.

Why Invest in This Asset? 💎 The 2020 Prizm Black Finite Auto 1/1 PSA 9 stands as the pinnacle of Ohtani's Panini Prizm releases, with only two Prizm Black Auto 1/1s ever produced. This particular card is the most visually striking, capturing Ohtani in an iconic batting stance with a determined expression, making it an unparalleled piece in the modern sports card market.

Prizm Black Finite 1/1s are among the most coveted cards in the hobby, often commanding six-figure prices for elite athletes. As Panini's flagship brand, Prizm holds the highest resale value across basketball, football, and baseball. Shohei Ohtani, widely regarded as the face of baseball, has cemented his legacy with three unanimous MVP titles, a World Series championship, and record-breaking performances. His impact on the game is unmatched, with historic achievements such as the first-ever 50-home run, 50-stolen base season, a feat never before seen in Major League Baseball history.

The market performance of Prizm Black 1/1 cards further underscores the significance of this asset. Kobe Bryant's 2019 Prizm Black 1/1 skyrocketed from $121K in 2021 to $275K in a recent private sale, while Lionel Messi's 2020 Prizm Black 1/1 surged from $160K to $350K in a short period. Another Kobe Prizm Black 1/1 (2018) was initially acquired for $100K, with later offers reaching $650K, ultimately declined by the owner.

Beyond baseball, Ohtani's cultural and financial influence is immense, with over $100M in endorsements, dominance in the Japanese market, and a rapidly growing U.S. fanbase. As the ultimate Ohtani collectible, this card transcends the sport, representing his legacy in both MLB and global sports history.

Context in Time ⏳ The sports card market has rebounded strongly, with ultra-rare, one-of-one cards leading the surge. With Panini losing its MLB license after 2025, Prizm Baseball cards will become historically significant, marking the end of an era. As Ohtani continues his dominance, demand for his most exclusive cards will only rise.

Conclusion 🎯 The Shohei Ohtani 2020 Prizm Black Finite Auto 1/1 PSA 9 is the most significant Ohtani card in the Panini era. With unparalleled rarity, a record-breaking player, and proven market appreciation, it is a true blue-chip collectible in modern sports card investing.
