This card is the first and only Prizm 1/1 featuring Cristiano Ronaldo in a Real Madrid jersey—widely considered the peak of his legendary career. As a true 1-of-1 with autograph, no variations, and a pristine Panini seal, it holds a unique position in both the Prizm lineage and global sports memorabilia. CR7's brand transcends football, with over 1 billion social followers and 5 Ballon d'Or wins, and this card is a physical embodiment of his most iconic chapter.

2. Best-in-Class Design and Configuration

This card combines the highly coveted Gold Power superfractor design with a smooth, bold autograph—an extremely rare configuration in the Prizm world. It's also the official physical version of Ronaldo's first-ever licensed blockchain card, making it a crossover collector's dream, with a large and untapped addressable market.

Comparables like Tom Brady's similar card recently sold for $310,000.

3. Strong Valuation Metrics and Market Momentum fundamentals in bringing high-valued licenses, age-tested brands, universal passion for sports, and transcendent talents together in innovative concepts.

Why Invest in This Asset? 💎

This card represents one of the most compelling opportunities in the global sports memorabilia market. It is the only 1/1 Prizm card of Cristiano Ronaldo in a Real Madrid jersey—created during the peak of his career when he led the team to an unprecedented UEFA Champions League threepeat. Combining rarity, brand power, and pristine condition, this card is a physical manifestation of CR7's most iconic era and status as a global icon.

Beyond the athlete's pedigree, the card itself has multiple unique investment characteristics: it's signed, it uses the premium Gold Power (superfractor) design, and it's encased directly from Panini in uncirculated condition. Additionally, it serves as the official physical representation of Ronaldo's first-ever blockchain-licensed card—an innovation that bridges the gap between traditional collectibles and the future of digital ownership.

Market data supports its value: recent comparable CR7 cards have increased in value dramatically (e.g., the 2014 Prizm Gold /10 rising from $50K to $162K in just two years). Experts estimate its current worth to be €120K–€150K—making the offer price significantly undervalued.

This card is not only a collector's trophy, but a potential future blue-chip investment asset. As Ronaldo approaches the 1,000-goal milestone, prepares for the 2026 World Cup, and expands his global brand, this card stands poised to benefit from multiple price catalysts, heightened demand, and growing cultural reverence.

Context in Time ⌚

This card emerges at a pivotal moment. Ronaldo is nearing 1,000 career goals, remains the most-followed person globally, and is expanding into new media and markets, from gaming to NFTs. As sports collectibles enter mainstream financial portfolios and digital-physical hybrid assets gain traction, this card bridges tradition and innovation. With no similar CR7 Real Madrid Prizm 1/1 in existence, the scarcity and timing make it a generational investment window.

With unmatched provenance, undervalued entry pricing, and massive upside potential, it represents more than a collectible—it's a blue-chip investment uniquely positioned to appreciate alongside the global icon's legacy and expanding cultural impact.
