Rating

8/10

Return

The 2007 vintage has achieved the highest average increase in value over the last five years at 19.2%. The average of the vintages published between 1995 and 2007 is at 12%.

We expect our investment to show a comparable performance.

9/10

Stability

Our analysts do not expect the value of the bottles to fall below cost.

Louis Roederer ensures high price stability thanks to exceptional quality standards. The champagne house does not release a new vintage every year. In addition, the quantities are limited to about 400,000 bottles.

9/10

Track Record

The champagne house was founded in 1776 and belongs to a small circle of producers that are still family-run today.

The bottles and vintages of Louis Roederer are also part of the Liv-Ex Champagne 50 Index, which has been measuring the return and increase in value of individual champagne bottles for over 15 years.

Investment Horizon of 5 to 7 years

Forecast	5 years	6 years	7 years
Optimistic	120	145	170
Expected	90	100	110
Pessimistic	63	65	70

- Investment horizon has been set to 5 to 7 years.
- Our Louis Roederer Champagne portfolio consists exclusively of 6 and 3 litre bottles (Methuselam and Jeroboam), which are produced in very limited quantities.
- The scarcity resulting from small quantities very quickly ensures higher selling prices.
